

SENATOR HARRIS: Yes, sir.

SENATOR HABERMAN: Again, fiscal note show no figures.

SENATOR HARRIS: Yes.

SENATOR HABERMAN: Section 2 of LB 325 could result in significant fiscal impact on all state agencies. However, without knowing the number of employees qualifying under this section, no cost estimate can be provided. Two questions. The first question, does your amendment change Section 2 in any manner pertaining to the significant fiscal impact on all state agencies?

SENATOR HARRIS: No, it does not.

SENATOR HABERMAN: Second question.

SENATOR HARRIS: Okay.

SENATOR HABERMAN: This is dated January 30, 1985. That's a year. I can't understand again why we cannot have, this is the second bill before us today, and I'd like to have some of my bills go through this body the same way where all the fiscal notes are blank. I'm going to ask you the same question that I asked Senator Landis and he so gratefully said he would try to the best of his ability to get a figure. Would you try, if we advance this bill to Select File, try to get us an estimate as to just exactly what a result and significant in fiscal impact on all state agencies would be?

SENATOR HARRIS: You're asking me to answer that why we don't have this information. Correct?

SENATOR HABERMAN: I'm asking you, if we advance your bill to Select File, before we take a vote on Select File, could you come up with an estimate of just exactly what they're talking about?

SENATOR HARRIS: We could come up with an estimate but it would have to be accepted as a flat out estimate because we just don't have the solid figures because we don't know what the various people that are going to be affected are going to be doing from time to time. So we just can't put a solid
